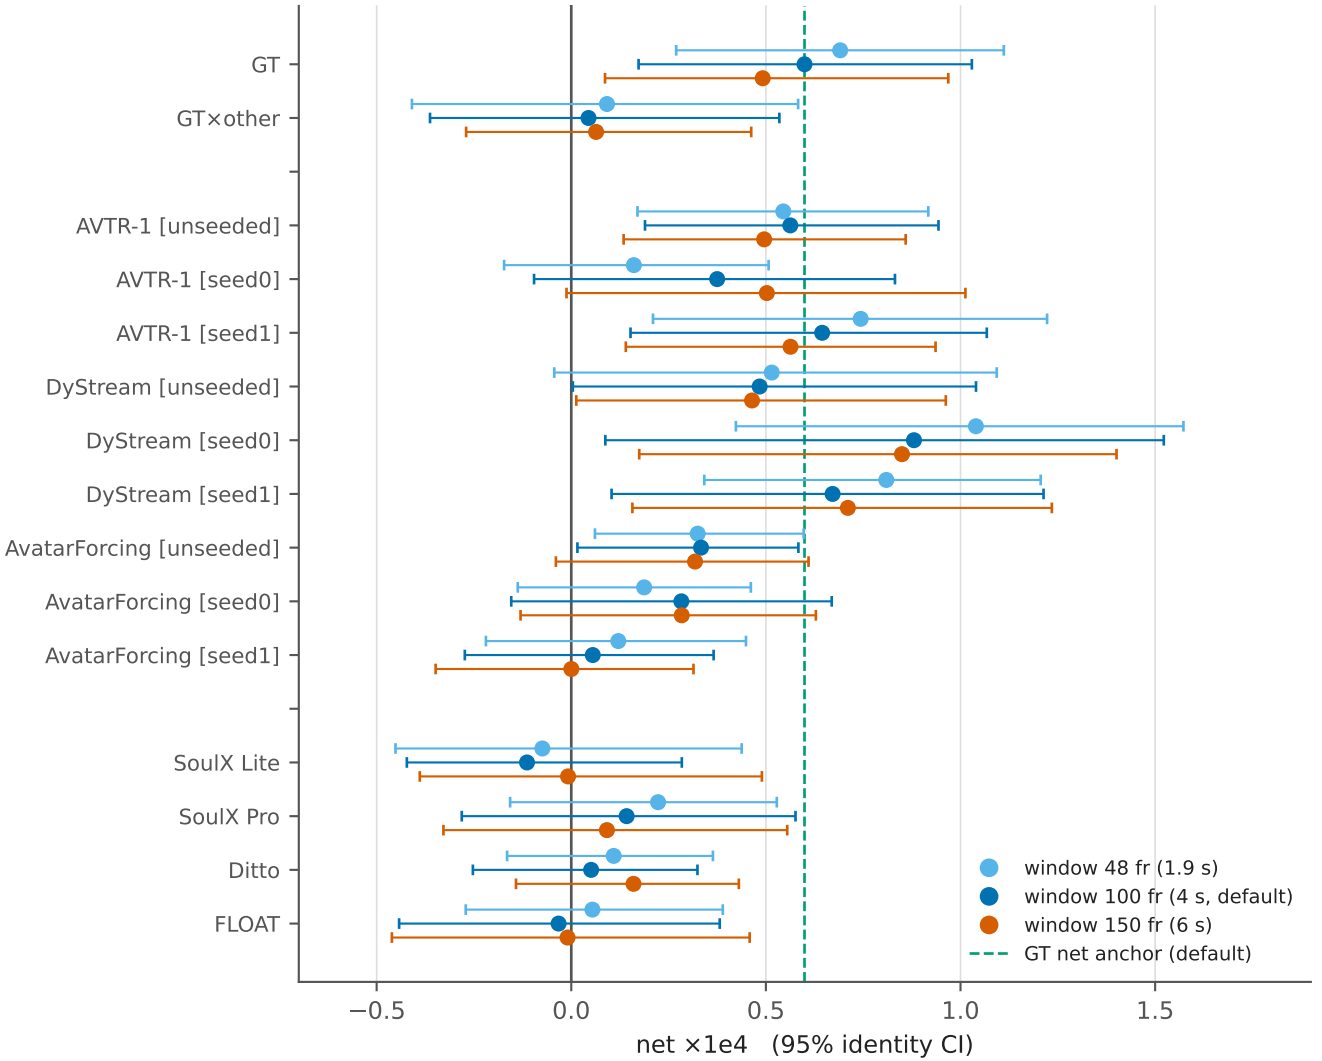
Lag-window robustness: R-DGG net at 1.9 / 4 / 6 s windows (the three nearly coincide)



All on the common mask (identical frames), n≈177, 13 identities. GT stays significant and controls stay ~0 at every window; the default 4 s sits in the middle. GT net declines mildly as the window widens (short lags carry most of the coupling).